Re: Using UN International Human Rights and Children's Rights Mechanisms to Protect Children from Adverse Impacts of Climate Change

Dear Nokulunga:

This letter sets out the terms and conditions under which Hausfeld LLP and Earthjustice (jointly, "Co-counsel") agree to represent your daughter, Ayakha Melithafa, through you in a communication and related proceedings before the United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child concerning the human rights impacts of climate change.

As pro bono counsel, we will not seek any fees or costs from you in connection with this matter.

The scope of our work will include legal advice to you in relation to the above-described work related to climate change. Additionally, this agreement confirms that you have discussed all aspects of our representation in the above described work with your [son/daughter], and that [son/daughter] is in voluntary agreement with the scope of this engagement.

In order that we may carry out these services, you authorize Co-counsel to enter into co-counsel agreements on your behalf with Hausfeld LLP's affiliated firms, Hausfeld & Co.
